

Westhaven Center for the Arts seeks Artist in Residence, Musician in Residence and Writer in Residence

These programs have been established to provide working studio space for artists and are a unique opportunity to work in a supportive environment for a period of one calendar year, enabling experimentation, exploration, and productive focus on individual goals.

The Artist in Residence is a position for a motivated artist who will participate in the activities of WCA in exchange for free studio space for the twelve months. The Artist in Residence serves on the Board of Directors and the Exhibit Committee, helping coordinate exhibits and acting as host in the gallery one day a week. The artist will be invited to have a one-person show at the end of the year to exhibit the work created during their residency. Disciplines considered are: painting, drawing, sculpture, printmaking, and other studio-based art making.

The residency includes a well lit 12 x 12 foot studio space adjacent to the gallery, with access to a large deck surrounded by redwood forest via double doors. This does not include living space, but there is access to the kitchen. Further information and application forms are available at the Center or at wcaexhibits2@gmail.com.

The Musician in Residence program provides a limited practice space scheduled to work with and around the art center activities. The musician is expected to perform at the end of the year to share work created during their residency. An introductory concert may also be possible. The musician is asked to either gallery sit or help at events. They are encouraged to attend Board Meetings. Further information and application forms are available at the Center, or at jeinem@humboldt1.com or call 834-2479.

The Writer in Residence program is for a motivated writer is willing to create and follow through with writing classes and workshops, programs such as SLAM or an open mic night and an end of the year performance at WCA. Or you may be writing a book or other material and wish to have a public presentations of some kind. WIR is also required to volunteer a certain amount of hours each month and is encouraged to attend Board Meetings. For information contact royking2@hotmail.com or call 677-9493.

Applications are due November 9 and residencies begin in January.
