The residency begins January 1st 2019, and is not live-in, providing limited practice space only. If at any time during this year you are unable to fulfill the agreement at the Westhaven Center for the Arts, we may ask you to step down and allow another musician who is able to use the space to step in.

Application and supplementary materials due by November 9th.

Submit as an email attachment to: jeinem@humboldt1.com,

For questions or other arrangements call 834-2479

All applicants will receive notification by the end of the week.

Examples of Projects:

Writing original music, centered around a particular topic or focus, to be performed at WCA towards the end of the year. Developing a focused teaching workshop to share with the community. Adding certain specific works to your repertoire, exploring a certain historical time period, or tracing a genre through history. Be creative, but also realistic; 12 months goes by quickly! Please list any requirements to fulfill your project.
